July is dedicated to the most precious blood of Jesus

One of the first to have a devotion to the Precious Blood of Jesus was Saint Gaspar of Buffalo. He strongly propagated this devotion, having the approval of the Holy See.

Another fact is that during the first Italian war for independence, in 1849, Pope Pius IX went into exile in Gaeta. He was with Don Giovanni Merlini, the third superior general of the Fathers of the Precious Blood. While the war was still raging, Merlini suggested to Pope Pius IX that he create a universal feast of the Precious Blood to implore God's heavenly help to end the war and bring peace to Rome. Pius IX subsequently made a declaration on June 30, 1849 that he intended to create a feast in honor of the Precious Blood. The war soon ended and he returned to Rome shortly thereafter. Years later in his pontificate, Saint John Paul II, in his Apostolic Letter Angelus Domini, repeated what Saint John XXIII said about the infinite value of the blood of Christ, of which "a single drop can save the whole world from all guilt."

The precious blood motivates us to meditate on Jesus' total offering for humanity. For this reason, the entire month of July is traditionally dedicated to the most precious blood; Christians are encouraged to meditate on the profound sacrifice of Jesus and the shedding of his blood for humanity.

"But God demonstrates his own love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. How much more, then, since we have now been justified by his blood, shall we be saved from wrath through him" (Romans 5:8ff).
